Temporary Closure of West Palm Beach Service Plaza Southbound Trucking Diesel Gas Station Area

Will be closed around-the-clock from Monday, November 27 to Sunday, December 3

FORT LAUDERDALE — Florida's Turnpike has scheduled a temporary closure of the trucking diesel gas pumps at the West Palm Beach Service Plaza to allow crews to perform repairs in this area. The passenger vehicle diesel pumps will remain open at all times.

The trucking diesel gas pumps located under the canopy along southbound Florida's Turnpike will be closed around-the-clock from 7 a.m. Monday, November 27 to 7 a.m. Sunday, December 3. During this temporary closure, drivers will be directed to use the trucking diesel gas station pumps located along northbound Florida's Turnpike. Motorists should follow posted detour signs and drive carefully, especially around construction zones.
