Today, MOBILITY CHOICES are limited due to existing gaps in sidewalks, bike lanes, and bus routes.

ROADWAY CONGESTION will continue to increase over time as traffic demand increases and will lead to an increase in crashes.

HURRICANE EVACUATIONS place significant strain on area roadways as millions of people flee the coastal regions.

EAST COLONIAL DRIVE
PROJECTED POPULATION INCREASE in Orange County and surrounding areas will result in additional traffic.

MILLIONS OF PEOPLE travel to Florida each year. Visitor traffic will increase as Florida’s tourism industry grows.

In the future, INCREASED DELAYS AND LONGER TRAVEL TIMES are expected if no improvements are made.

The study corridor includes several significant environmental resources, including the ECONLOCKHATCHEE RIVER, floodplains, wetlands, and conservation easements. No new crossing of these environmental resources is proposed.