Three Florida's Turnpike Service Plazas Closed for Hurricane Ian

OCOEE, Fla. – Due to Hurricane Ian, the Florida Department of Transportation (FDOT) and Florida's Turnpike Enterprise have closed three Florida's Turnpike Service Plazas along Florida's Turnpike/State Road (SR) 91 in Central Florida, beginning at 10 a.m., Wednesday September 28. The closures include the fuel pumps, convenience stores and food plazas located at each plaza.

Effective today, the following service plazas will be closed:

- Turkey Lake Service Plaza
- Canoe Creek Service Plaza
- Fort Drum Service Plaza

Drivers traveling southbound on Florida's Turnpike will not have any available services between the Okahumpka Service Plaza and the Fort Pierce Service Plaza. Fort Pierce will be the last available plaza for northbound travelers until the Okahumpka Service Plaza.

The Florida's Turnpike Service Plazas will reopen as soon as possible, once it has been deemed safe after the storm.

For the latest closures and updates, travelers can access Florida's 511 service from cell phones, landlines and online at www.FL511.com. The Florida Department of Transportation's mission is to provide a safe transportation system that ensures the mobility of people and goods, enhances economic prosperity, and preserves the quality of the state's environment and communities. The department is committed to building a transportation system that not only fits the current needs of Florida's residents and visitors, but also enhances mobility throughout the state to accommodate its consistent and rapid growth. The unique nature of the Sunshine State and its year-round warm climate provides numerous opportunities to achieve the department's mission through multiple transportation modes including highways/streets, air, rail, sea, spaceports, transit, and the ever-expanding deployment of bicycle & pedestrian facilities.
